

Associate Membership

Membership Benefits

Representation

Your organization's membership includes representation in The Directory, our member's only guide of certification contacts.

Online Certification Database

This resource is at your fingertips in the member's area. Compare more than 130 programs around the globe by state/province, certification category or reciprocity.

Networking

Connect with our membership of professionals from almost 50 states, 9 Canadian Provinces and several international programs.

Annual Conference

Associate membership includes discounts to our Annual Conference - your opportunity to network with professionals from across the globe.

The Certifier

Our member's only publication keeps you informed of the latest certification news and industry perspectives.

ABC
Association of Boards of Certification

The Association of Boards of Certification has been serving its membership as a connection to the certification world, a voice for international certification issues and a tool to build lifelong, professional relationships since 1972.

We recognize that our membership is valued by many groups within our industry, and to meet this need, we extend an invitation for ABC Associate Membership applications to the following:

- Professional Associations in the environmental control field
- Educational Institutions accredited by a nationally recognized body which provide training or education in the environmental control field
- Companies/Firms that provide training, contract operations, and/or technical assistance in the environmental control field
- Utilities that operate a water treatment facility, water distribution system, water laboratory, wastewater treatment facility, wastewater collection system, or wastewater laboratory
- Environmental Trainers and Consultants that provide training, education, contract operations, and/or technical assistance in the environmental control field

ABC Associate Membership Benefits

Associate members have access to the Online Certification Database - your program's resource to compare more than 130 programs around the globe. While associate members cannot vote, nominate, hold office or have representation on the Board of Directors, they receive discounts on ABC's Annual Conference registration, have opportunities to network with ABC membership and stay informed of the latest certification news with a subscription to The Certifier along with discounts on other ABC publications.

Associate membership is not required for certification by ABC, and does not confer any type of credential. Dues are $250 USD per year.

Applying for Membership

Applications must be approved by ABC's Chief Executive Officer and Membership Committee Chair. To have your application considered for membership:

- Complete the application form on the reverse side of this page.
- Submit an electronic or paper copy of the application to the ABC office along with dues payment in US dollars.
